

John Silverio- Vice President Sr. Counsel, Legal, Charter Communications

John Silverio is Vice President, Senior Counsel, IP at Charter Communications. John's role at Charter includes management of its patent operations and providing general IP counseling in the areas of M&A, patent acquisition and licensing and other transactional activities. Before joining Charter (through its acquisition of Time Warner Cable),

John was Senior IP Counsel at Motorola Inc.'s Connected Home Business based in Horsham, PA, serving in a variety of roles, including as lead of its patent operations group and as its sole IP lawyer responsible for management and response to patent infringement assertions and litigations.

Prior to Motorola, John was employed as Patent Counsel at Sarnoff Corporation in Princeton, NJ and in private practice as an IP lawyer at two large, general practice law firms located in Philadelphia, PA.

The WICT
Network

Empowering Women
in Media, Entertainment and Technology