

Meenu Haseen is an accomplished senior manager with over 17 years of IT experience. Throughout her career, she has performed varied roles including tech delivery manager, tech lead, functional analyst & developer. Meenu is a powerful leader with strong aptitude for leading complex projects in varied technologies and locations. Her expertise spans a wide range of areas including java application development, cloud automation and security, and platform engineering. In her free time, Meenu enjoys hiking, camping, and tending to her plants.