

Brandee Brown is a visionary leader, connector, and advocate for personal and professional growth. With 30 years of experience, she has built a career rooted in resilience, strategic leadership, and a deep commitment to empowering others. As the Founder and CEO of Magnify Success and Chief Partnerships Officer at the Impact Innovation Foundation (IIF), Brandee is known for her ability to bridge people and resources, unlocking pathways to achievement and impact.

Brandee spent more than two decades at Comcast, where she cultivated a deep understanding of corporate strategy, leadership development, and career advancement. Her work with executives and emerging leaders alike has shaped her holistic approach to professional growth, one that emphasizes integrity, confidence, and connection.

Through Magnify Success, she channels this expertise into coaching, immersive workshops, and strategic guidance designed to help individuals magnify their potential and navigate complex environments with clarity and purpose.

Beyond her corporate and coaching roles, Brandee is deeply invested in community service and global collaboration. She serves on numerous boards and advisory councils, contributing her strategic insight and advocacy to organizations that uplift others. Her current affiliations include:

- Dreams Alive Club (Botswana) - Global Strategist
- PBS 12 - Community, Presence and Engagement Board Member
- The WICT Network - Rocky Mountain Chapter - 2025/26 Vice President
- Bridge the Gap Foundation - Board Member
- Link Empower Foundation - Advisory Board Member
- CU Boulder Women's Leadership Program Mentor
- CU Boulder Leeds School of Business- Leadership Customer Experience Program Advisor and more

Brandee's influence continues to expand as she dedicates herself to amplifying voices, fostering innovation, and building bridges across industries and communities. Through every initiative, she remains focused on growing impact, celebrating progress, and inspiring others to lead with purpose.